

Hallie Rich, Senior Consultant

hallier@brownflynn.com

As a senior consultant at BrownFlynn, Hallie Rich provides strategic communications and sustainability consultation to clients including Fairmount Minerals and The Timken Company. Her broad knowledge of corporate responsibility and organizational development allows Hallie to guide clients in the design and implementation of sustainability strategies tailored to fit their needs.

With a passion for strengthening the link between business and world benefit, Hallie applies her strategic planning and positive change management skills to counsel clients in transforming their organizations into sustainable enterprises.

Hallie graduated magna cum laude from the College of Wooster (Phi Beta Kappa), where she received her Bachelor of Arts in American Studies, a self-designed major. She holds her Master of Science degree in Positive Organizational Development from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University and also received an Appreciative Inquiry Certificate in Positive Business & Society Change and Certificate in Developing Leadership through Emotional Intelligence. Hallie currently serves as co-chair of the Associate Board of Shoes and Clothes for Kids.

Community Engagement

- Shoes and Clothes for Kids, Associate Board Co-Chair